THE BETHEL COLLEGE

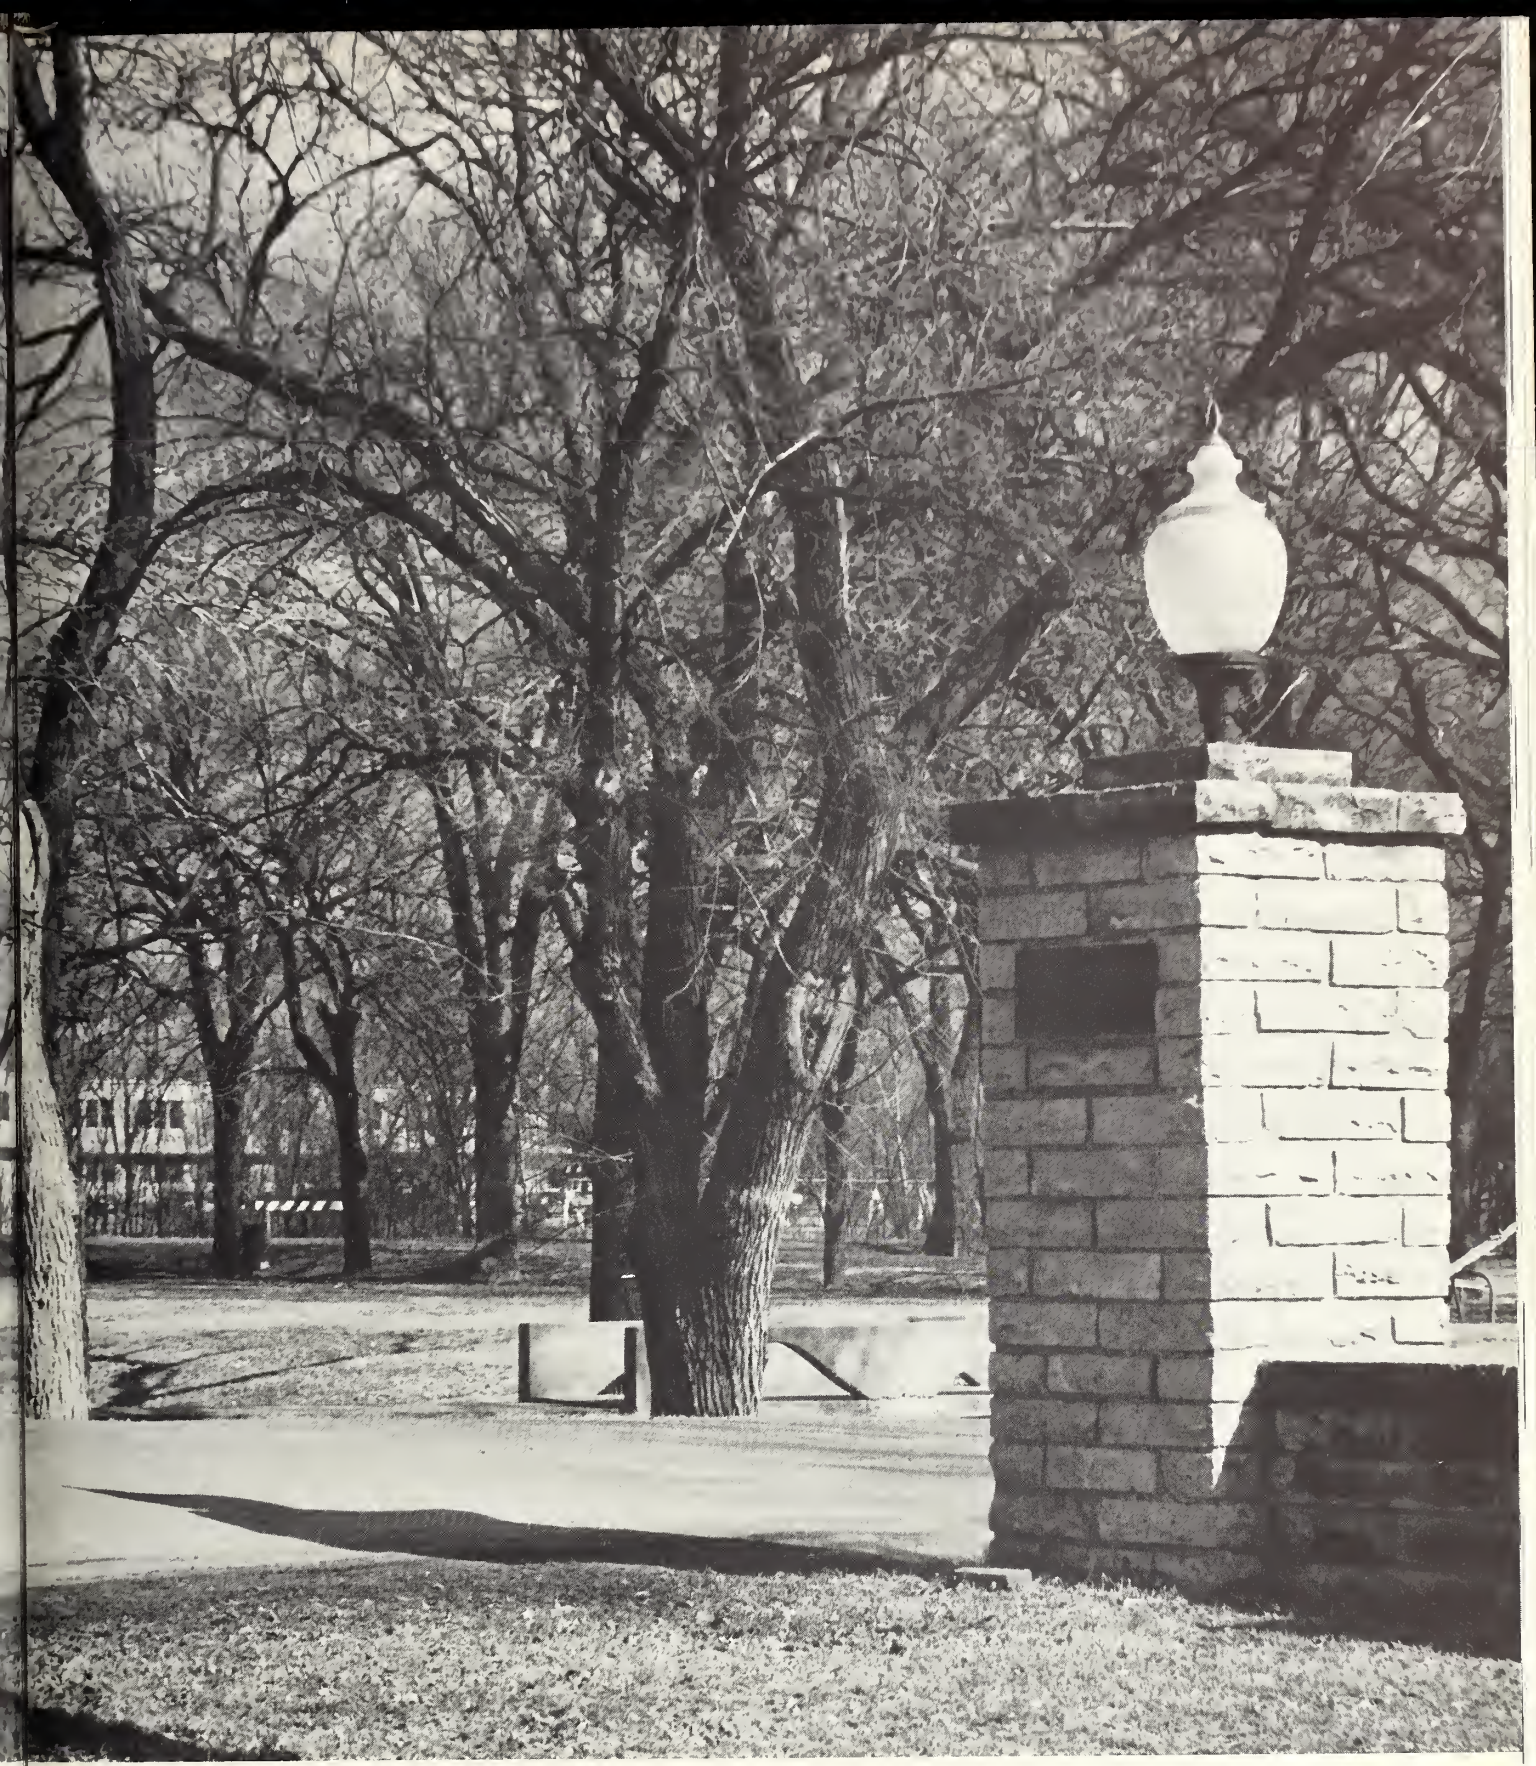

1960 GRAYMAROON

NORTH NEWTON, KANSAS

Foreword

The doors of anticipation and expectation are swinging wide as they beckon to the enthusiasm of our youth. We long for the unknown exciting future which their entrance will gain for us. Yet, we close the door to the past with sadness and hesitation, for we have learned that we can never regain the past to the present. We cling like a young child clings to his parents to past memories of defeat and elation, to images of joy and despair, to tasks which we did well and those which lack of understanding prevented us from accomplishing. At last we are fully aware that it is this past that has removed the lock from the future's door. It is this past that has taught us the lessons of experience which will enable us to march forward with confidence.

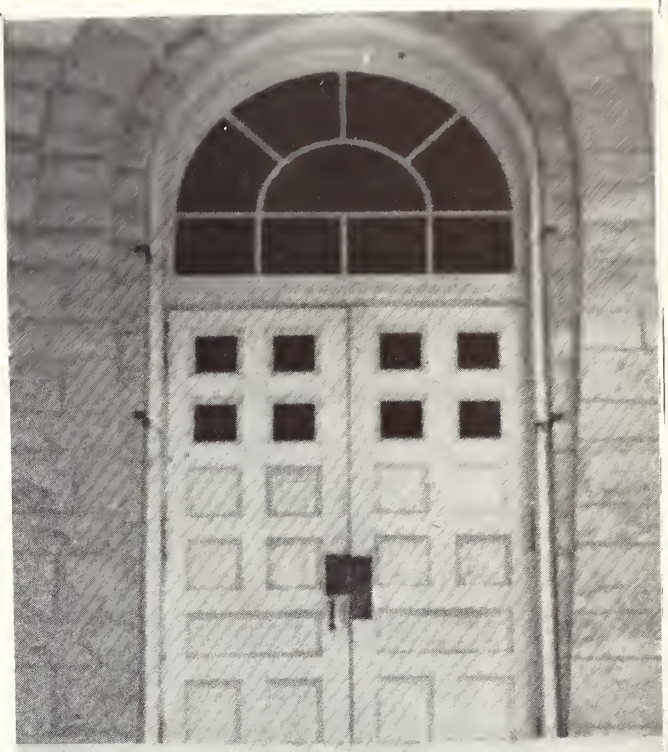

THE CAMPUS

We retrace our footsteps down College Avenue to our church. Our hearts waited with impatience for our feet to carry them to the strength and confidence which were waiting within its doors. The days of trouble were many and we often searched unsuccessfully only to rediscover our own inadequacies. How peacefully and securely we once again opened the heavy doors to its sanctuary.

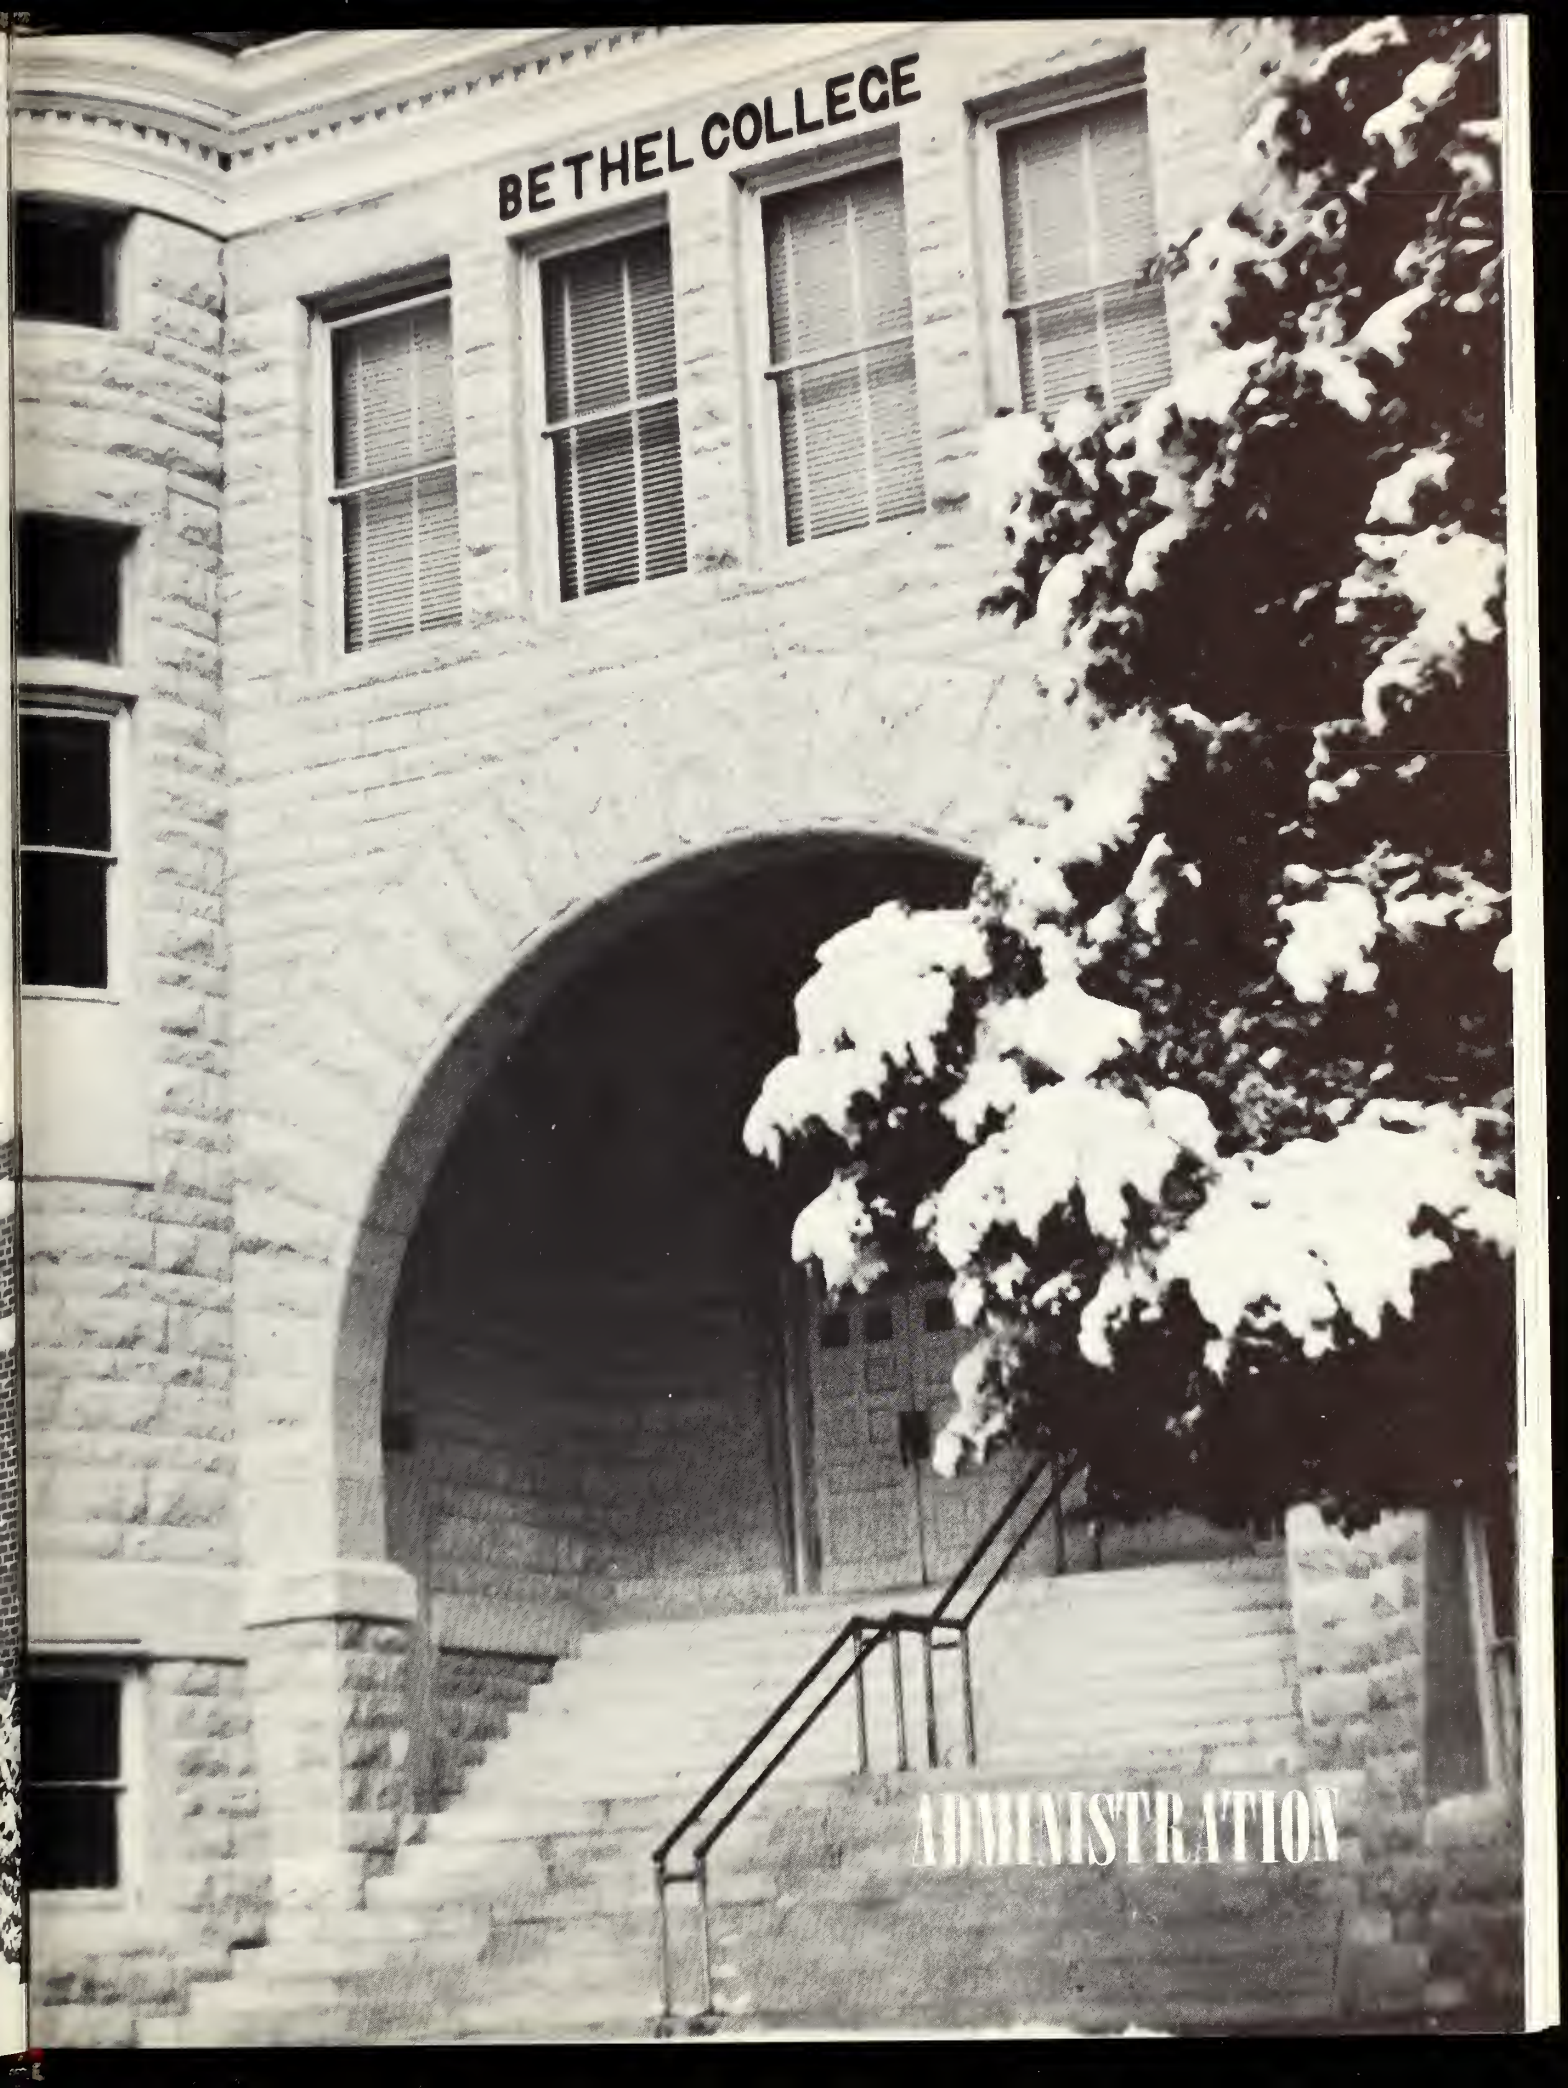

Those old steps; pitted, dented, cracked, unattractive . . . those very same steps which always tripped our feet as we rushed to chapel are a part of home to us.
The big heavy doors, the same that became more enormous with each prairie breeze are like the entrance to our own homes.
How often have we stretched our necks
to follow that chalky-white tower as it climbed skyward. Will time slowly erase? Perhaps, but only until we return for another glimpse. We can ne'r forget a part of home.

WINTER SCENES ON CAMPUS

ADMINISTRATION

Throughout the years we and our children will look periodically at this annual album of memories. As it brings back to mind old friends, meaningful experiences, moments of inspiration, and even keen disappointments, may it remind us also that this was a rich year of our lives; that it was good for us to have been in this Christian community; that as a result we were drawn closer to Jesus Christ and more deeply committed to His Service.

The School Nurses, Ann Preheim and Carolee Balzer, were kept busy this year by arranging for a polio clinic, encouraging students and faculty to donate blood, not to mention taking care of the numerous "ails and wails" of the student body.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The aims and objectives of the Board of Directors of Bethel College are reflected in the functions of the various committees in which their responsibilities are met. These committees include a planning committee, finance committee, and teacher's committee. The planning committee strives to plan the program of physical development of the campus for the next twenty-five years. It is the duty of the finance committee to discover ways and means of raising funds to finance the development program, and to make necessary decisions concerning endowment funds and other financial matters. The hiring of new teachers and other faculty concerns are the responsibilities of the teacher's committee.

WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION

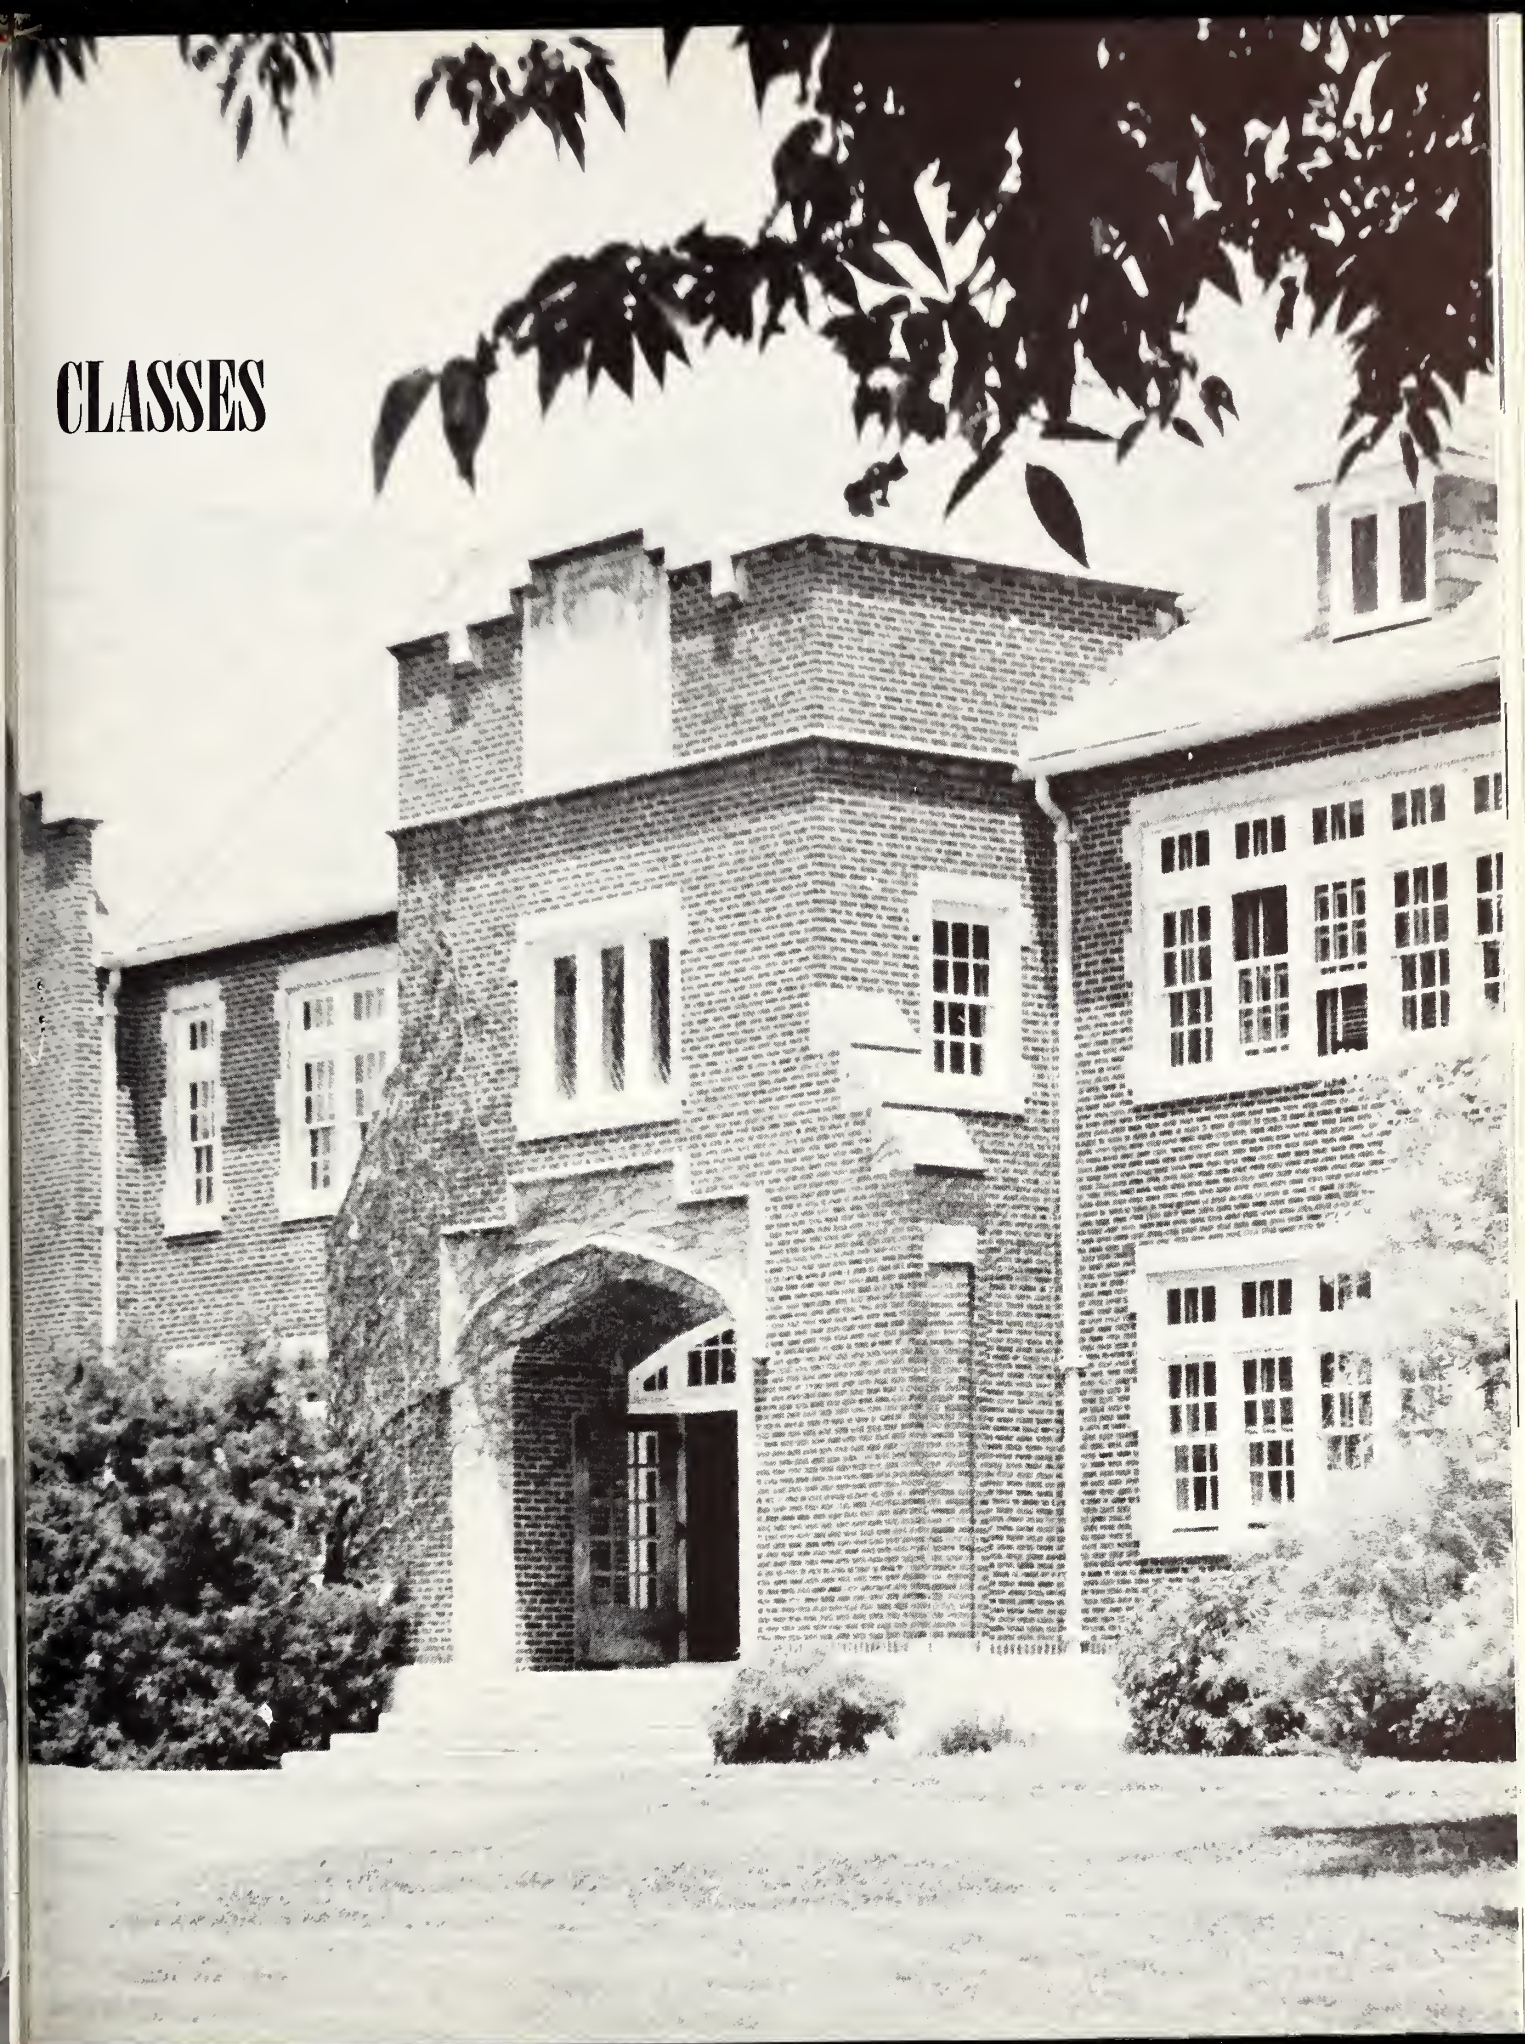

The association has contributed greatly to the development of Bethel College through the many projects which they have undertaken. These projects include kitchen equipment for Memorial Hall, and a contribution of more than $50,000 for the Women's Residence Hall. Current projects include the establishment of a fellowship for Bethel College faculty women to complete their doctoral degrees, and partial refurnishment of Carnegie Hall. The organization presently consists of 191 women, nearly half of whom are life members.

FINE ARTS

MEMORIAL HALL SERIES

November 23—Nelson and Neal, an Australian-American husband-wife piano team, rendered the first number of the Memorial Hall Series for this year. They presented a delightful concert which included original four-hand music by the Classical as well as the Modern masters.

This famous piano duo is hailed by the National Artists Corporation as being among the greatest contemporary musical artists. Their wide acceptance among their listeners is explainable only in terms of their universal success with artists and audiences alike.

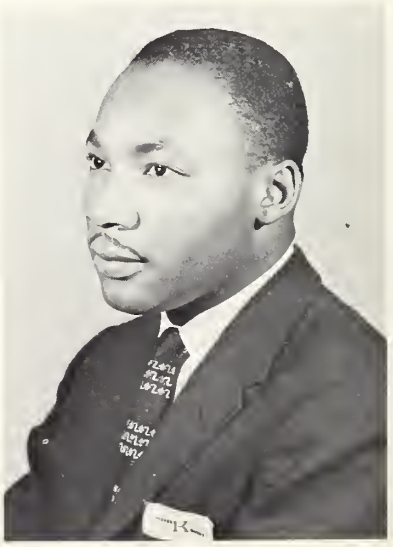

The Neals are on tour from October through April, presenting concerts all over North America. Since their marriage eleven years ago, they have traveled more than a quarter of a million miles, giving nearly eight hundred concerts in the United States, Mexico, and Canada.

Mr. Neal has recently written a book entitled, Wave As You Pass, an autobiography on himself and his family.

January 21—Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., famed integration leader from Montgomery, Alabama, presented the second number of the 1959-60 Memorial Hall Series. His forceful lecture, in which he stressed the importance of love and nonviolence in the future of the Negro movement toward equality and justice, was well received by a full house in Memorial Hall.

Dr. King has served as president of the Montgomery Improvement Association, the organization which guided and directed the bus boycott in Montgomery. He is the author of the famous book, Stride Toward Freedom, in which he explains the developments of the integration movement in the city of Montgomery.

In 1957 the Gallup Poll revealed that he was one of the most admired religious leaders of the world. In the same year Time magazine selected him as one of the ten outstanding personalities of the year.

February 4—The Concordia Choir of Moorhead, Minnesota, under the direction of Paul J. Christiansen, was featured as the third number of this year's Memorial Hall Series.

Singing a cappella, the choir presented a well-verigated program ranging from the sixteenth century classics down through the Bach era to the contemporary masters. Several favorite selections by the director's father, the distinguished F. Melius Christiansen, were included in the repertoire. The concert was well received by an audience who felt they had witnessed a great accomplishment in the realm of choral music.

This famed group of sixty-five singers has toured the nation several times in recent years, and won wide acclaim on a tour of Europe in 1958. In its years of concertizing, the Concordia Choir has been lauded from coast to coast as one of the foremost contemporary choral groups in America. The reception of the choir by musicians and laymen alike has been overwhelming.

April 2—As the final number of the Memorial Hall Series, the New York Brass Quintet, of the Pryor-Metz Concert Service, was featured. They presented a refreshing, sophisticated concert of the fading art of brass ensemble music.

Organized on 1953, this Quintet was the first organization of its kind to sign a long term exclusive contract with a major recording company. Recordings, concerts, innumerable television appearances, and one educational movie are already among the distingiushed accomplishments of these fine young musicians.

CHORALE

Under the leadership of Dr. David H. Suderman, the Bethel Chorale has completed a full schedule of concerts during the school year. Due to unfavorable weather conditions, they were unable to tour during inter-quarters. However, they have contributed highly to Bethel College in that they have performed extensively throughout the area.

CHOIR

The Bethel College Choir this year has been under the direction of Professor Gordon Corwin. It has served as chapel choir and has given various concerts throughout surrounding communities. The choir presented J. S. Bach's Magnificat in its fall concert and also served as the pageant choir in the presentation of "We Are Pilgrims."

"AMAHL AND THE NIGHT VISITORS"

The Christmas season at Bethel was highlighted by the one-act Christmas opera, Amahl and the Night Visitors, by Gian-Carlo Menotti. This opera, originally written for television, is the story of a poor little crippled boy who presents his gift to the Christ Child after being healed by the three wise men. The cast, leading roles, chorus, dancers, and pianists, consisted of 28 members and was directed by Professor Gordon Corwin.

PEACE PLAY

"CHRIST IN THE CONCRETE CITY"

This year the Peace and World Order Commission of the SCF again sponsored the peace play, "Christ in the Concrete City" by P. W. Turner. This play was sent out to several churches in Kansas. It was also presented on the Bluffton College campus when the Intercollegiate Peace Fellowship convened there. It is a very potent play dealing with the crucifixion and resurrection of our Lord and how this event in history affects our lives.

"Up . . . up . . . and down in the socket." And Jesus said, "Father, forgive them."

FOLK FESTIVAL

This year the annual Mennonite folk festival, which was held March 11 and 12, again continued its program to include such activities as hog butchering, quilting, and many other displays. In place of the traditional German play which has been considered the festival's highlight for the last number of years, the centennial pageant, "We Are Pilgrims" was presented.

Ladies of Schweizer background served a Swiss Mennonite supper to over a thousand people each evening.

"WE ARE PILGRIMS"

"We Are Pilgrims," the centennial pageant, was sponsored by the Mennonite Folk Festival and presented at the time of the annual folk festival, March 11 and 12, 1960. It was written by Maynard Shelly and musically arranged and compiled by J. Harold Moyer. The pageant was presented originally at the 1959 Centennial session of the General Conference in Bluffton, Ohio. It depicted Mennonite history through a number of incidents and illustrated the theme of faith and its meaning in human experience. The cast was composed of Bethel and Freeman College students, ministers and laymen of General Conference churches. The presentation at the festival constituted the beginning of an extended pageant tour into Nebraska, South Dakota, Minnesota, and Manitoba.

Memorial Hall was filled to capacity for both performances in Newton. It will long be remembered by all who attended.

"ARMS AND THE MAN"

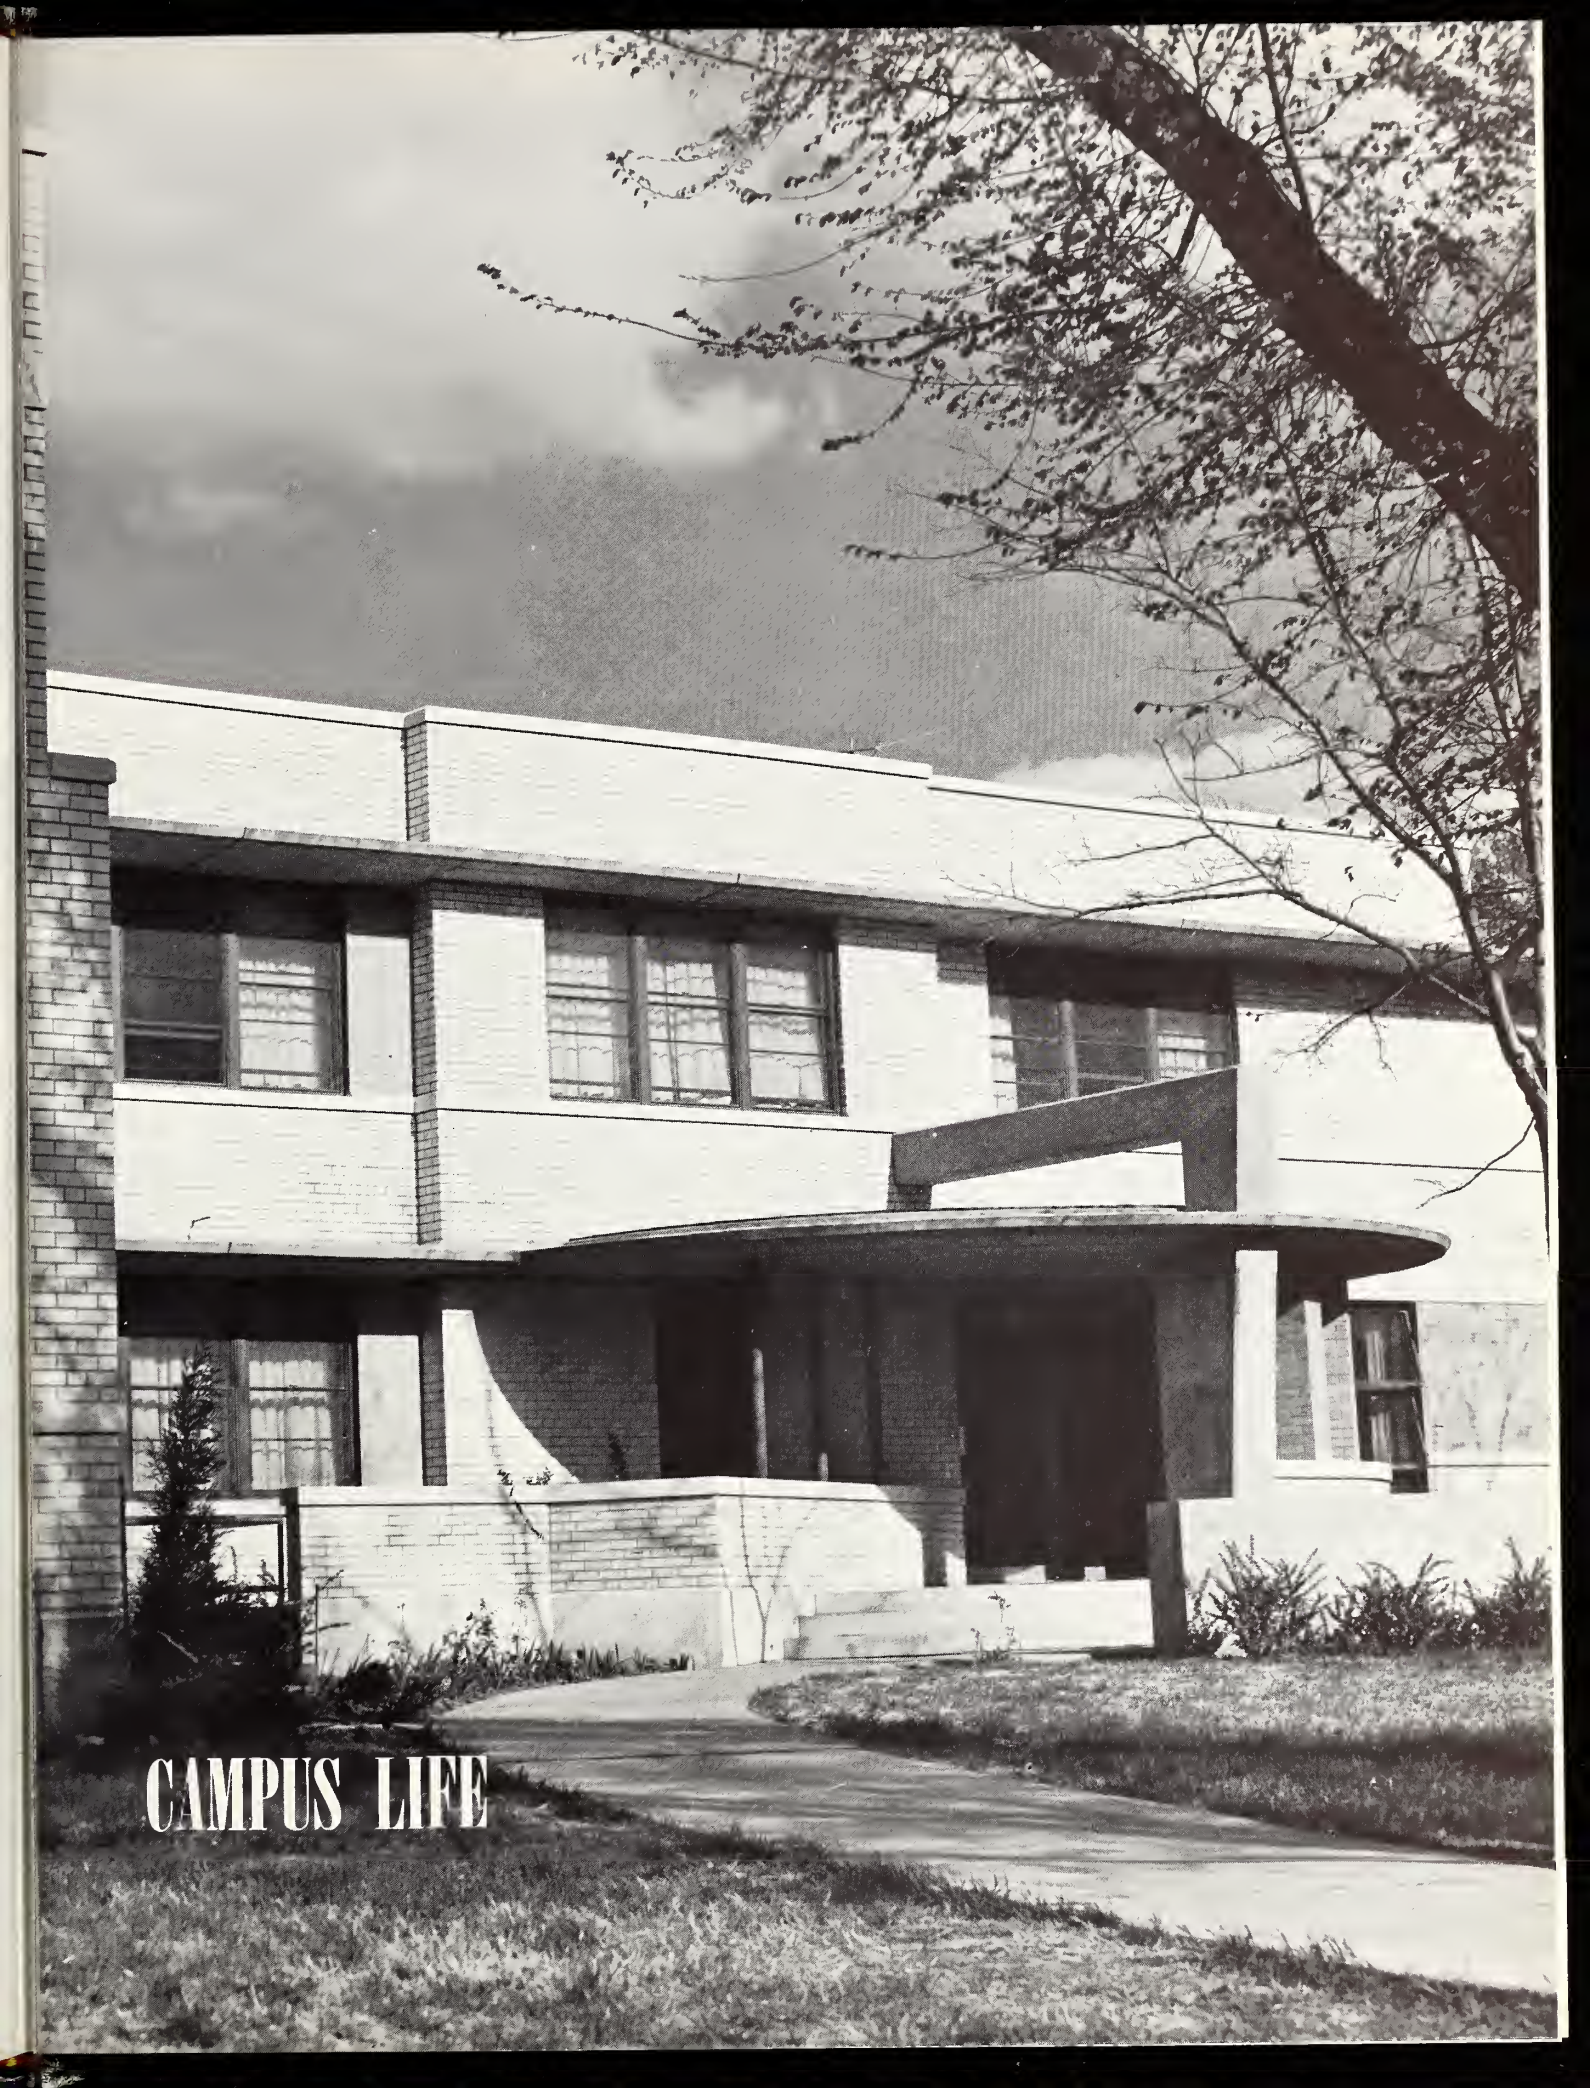

"Arms and the Man," a play written by George Bernard Shaw, was presented by the drama department of Bethel College on February 19 and 20. The play demonstrated remarkable achievement in that it was produced and directed entirely by student volunteers. Helen Voth and Dianne Waltner served as co-directors. In the absence of a dramatics instructor this year, the drama students organized and made a fine contribution to the cultural life of the campus. They are to be commended for their fine work.

EATING

Methuselah ate what he found on his plate,
And never, as people do now,
Did he note the amount of the calorie count;
He ate it because it was chow.
He wasn't disturbed as at dinner he sat,
Devouring a roast or a pie,
To think it was lacking, in granular fat
Or a couple of vitamins shy.
He cheerfully chewed each species of food,
Unmindful of troubles or fears
Lest his health might be hurt
By some fancy dessert;
And he lived over nine hundred years.

WUPPERTAL EXCHANGE PROGRAM

For the past number of years Bethel College has participated in an exchange program with the Paedagogische Academie (above) in Wuppertal, Germany. This program has been of unlimited value to the participants in that it offers an excellent opportunity for the interchanging of ideas and cultures. Representing Bethel at Wuppertal this year is Dilores Rempel (left) from Newton, Kansas. Barbara Schmidt is attending Bethel this year as Wuppertal's exchange student.

SPELLMAN EXCHANGE

A dream of many has at last been fulfilled this year in the initiation of the exchange program with Spellman College in Atlanta, Georgia. It has long been realized that there is a need for improving relations between various races within our own country. This program has helped to meet this need in that it provides for a closer understanding of American brothers, white and dark. Elizabeth Bradshaw and Willa Mae Gardner are representing Spellman on the Bethel campus this year. Anna Marie Peterson from Wayland, Iowa, and Martha Thiessen from Leamington, Ontario, are attending Spellman in Atlanta.

BUFFALO BARBECUE

The twentieth annual Buffalo Bar-B-Q was held April 4 in Memorial Hall. Featured speaker for the evening was Dick Harp, head basketball coach at Kansas University. He spoke to a crowd of about 700 men on the importance and function of athletics in community life and human relationships. Seated at the speakers' table are (from left to right): Marlan Ratzlaff, Wesley Buller, Dick Harp, Gerhard Buhr, Frank Rayburn, Milton Goering, Rev. Russell Mast, Eldon Graber.

FACULTY SKIT PRESENTED FOR STUDENTS

As a courtesy to the students of Bethel College, the Faculty presented a well-received, hilarious musical skit entitled, "The Hair-Raising Adventure of Choosing an Acting President for Bethel College," on February 26. The skit depicted the many trials and tribulations of choosing a college president. Its specific purpose was to acquaint the students with a realistic situation which actually faced the college late last summer.

The skit was directed by Dr. J. Harold Moyer. The music of Gilbert and Sullivan was revised to fit this particular performance. The main cast, all of whom held singing roles, included Kenneth Deckert, Dr. Harold Gross, Gordon Corwin, Dr. J. W. Fretz, Mrs. Christine Miller, Mrs. George Buhr, and Miss Lena Waltner.

As a courtesy of the faculty, a social hour was held in the Student Union Room following the production. Miss Honora Becker, Dr. Ronald Rich, and Dr. J. Harold Moyer presented individual numbers. An entertaining evening of hilarity and joviality was experienced by all who attended.

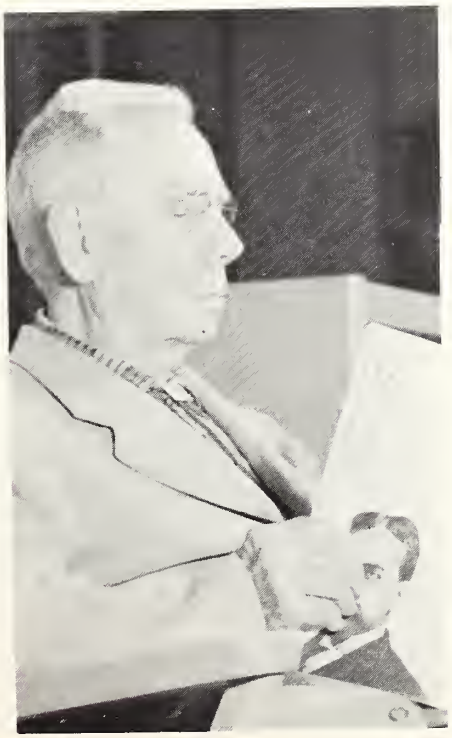

A banquet was held at the Guest House for the Bethel College staff on October 12. Menno Schrag, Chairman of the Board of Directors, presented a copy of the book The Story of Bethel College to each person having served on the Bethel staff for ten years or more. Pictured are (from left to right): Charles Kauffman, curator of the Museum; Ella Duerksen; Herta Willms; Mrs. A. J. Regier; Harrison Unruh; C. B. Goering; and Menno Schrag, Chairman of the Board.
